

FAQ

Q: What's included with your tax preparation service?

A: Tax Controversy Service is ready to prepare California State and United States Federal Tax Returns as well as handling complex and unique tax issues.

Q: How much do you charge?

A: Our rates are comparable to those of name brand tax companies, but our customer service and attention to detail is what makes us stand out from the other tax preparation companies.

Q: What documents do I need to bring when I have my taxes prepared?

A: You will need income forms such as your W-2 (Wage forms from employers), 1099 Misc (miscellaneous income from non employers), 1099 Int (interest earned on savings of interest bearing accounts), 1099 Div (dividends you received from investments), and K1 (income from partnerships), as well as itemized expenses like your 1098 (Mortgage interest statements), real estate tax notices, Receipts for charitable donations, Medical expenses usually over $1,000.

Q: Why should I hire a tax professional?

A: Few people like to file their own taxes, and even with the help of computer programs, there are problems that they cannot account for such as special circumstances or a unique portfolio. We are licensed, trained and ready to tackle complex tax problems to help our clients get the most of their tax returns. We can handle any tax issue.

Q: Where is Tax Controversy Service located?

A: We are located in the Encino area off Ventura Boulevard. We are the Encino neighborhood tax preparation professionals in the 91316, 91416, 91426, and 91436 zip code regions.

Q: When is Tax Controversy Service open for business?

A: We are open on weekdays from 9 am to 5 pm.